

The Westbury Hotel in Mayfair, London selected MCOM's HOTstream Hospitality Suite

Athens, November 2011. The Westbury Hotel, in the chic heart of Mayfair, London (www.westburymayfair.com) selected MCOM's HOTstream High Definition Hospitality suite (www.hotstream.eu).

The Westbury Hotel selected the full range of HOTstream's HD Hospitality Suite solutions, including:

- HOTstream Interactive TV to provide Interactive TV services to all guests, including access to hotel services such as view bill and hotel messages.
- HOTstream IPTV providing digital quality up to High Definition for the satellite TV channels and features like personalized channel line-up, Channel categorization by genre and more
- HOTstream Video on Demand with an extensive and continuously updated movie library of first run Hollywood and High Definition Thematic movies
- HOTstream Internet for wireless and wired High Speed Internet Access (HSIA) to guests' laptops, smart-phones and internet enabled devices
- HOTstream Digital Signage solution to promote services and facilities, providing in parallel detailed information and directional signs for all facilities, conferences and the meetings.

The Westbury Mayfair hotel combines modern luxury and the best comfort with timeless style, ideally located on Bond Street, a perfect enclave for both business and leisure travellers to central London. The first Westbury was opened in 1927 in New York City by the polo playing Phipps family, later in 1955 The Westbury London was opened, becoming the first five star American hotel in London and one of the finest hotels in Mayfair.

In 1999, Cola Holdings acquired The Westbury Mayfair and set in motion some radical changes. A multi-million pound refurbishment to all of its 246 bedrooms & suites and in 2009 the launch of The Westbury Gallery, a brand new state-of-the-art 800 sq m venue ideal for a corporate function or a glamorous lifestyle event.
